With Scholarships and Loans

Alumni Lend Helping Hand

It was 10 years ago that Mrs. Mabel McGuire Pulliam '26 presented a check for $536.30 to establish the Roscoe Pulliam Memorial Scholarship fund in honor and memory of her husband, the late Roscoe Pulliam '20-2, '25, sixth president of Southern. Since that time 24 students have received $3,325 in awards ranging from $50 to $300 under a program sponsored by the Alumni Association.

This year Marie Adele Hughes, Johnston City, and Robert E. Moyer, Marion, are recipients of $250 Pulliam scholarships. Miss Hughes, who completed work for graduation last month, majored in mathematics and economics and is remaining on campus for graduate work. She works at the Data Processing and Computing Center and has a grade average of 4.709.

Mr. Moyer is in his junior year in the College of Education, majoring in mathematics and psychology. He works a hundred hours a month on campus and holds an Illinois State Scholarship and a National Defense Loan. His average is 4.431.

It was four years ago that the Alumni Association Student Loan Fund program was started with a contribution of $36 from the Randolph County Alumni Chapter. Since then the fund has grown to $2,470.67 with 245 loans amounting to $9,653.50 being negotiated. The Randolph County alumni have made 11 contributions totaling $288.50. Other chapters contributing to the loan fund are Evansville, Ind. ($44.50), Franklin County ($175), Jackson County ($483.47), and Williamson County ($220). Size of loans varies from $10 to $150 and normal time for repaying is three months.

In the fall of 1960 Frank E. Galbreath, ex '12, Denver, Colo., started the Frank Galbreath Fund with $50 to help freshmen enroll at Southern.

Students receiving alumni scholarships and loans are selected by the University's Scholarships and Loans Committee on the basis of good character, worthiness, and need.

Last spring the Jackson County Alumni Chapter held its first fund-raising telephone campaign, presenting $1,578.50 to the Alumni Association's scholarship program. This month the club will hold its second campaign. The Madison County club conducted its first Telefund last month.

The Roscoe Pulliam Memorial Alumni Scholarship recipients for 1962-63 are Robert E. Moyer, junior from Marion, and Marie Adele Hughes, senior from Johnston City. Each received $250 scholarships.

SIU Member Land-Grant Colleges

SIU has been elected a member of the Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges, oldest American organization of institutions of higher learning.

Membership was proposed by Pres. David D. Henry, of the University of Illinois, and voted on at the association's December meeting at Raleigh, N.C.

The association now has 74 members representing major multi-purpose colleges and universities located in all the states and Puerto Rico. The Morrill Land-Grant Act of 1862 designated only 68 land grant schools.

Southern, now 28th largest in the nation in full-time enrollment, is one of a small number of non-land grant colleges to be offered membership.

When officially notified of the election, Pres. D. W. Morris said, "We accept with pleasure the invitation to join this 76-year-old association of universities. I trust we shall benefit not only from the membership but also may contribute something from our tremendous post-war growth which will be of value to the Association as a whole."

School Health Workshop

A multiple-agency sponsored Workshop in School Health will be held from June 17 through July 12 for teachers, health educators, nurses, school administrators, and social workers.

Sponsored by the Illinois Office of Public Instruction, Department of Mental Health, Department of Public Health, and the Illinois Tuberculosis Association, it will deal with problems of the participants in the area of school health.

The workshop will be heavily staffed for the four-week session with staff personnel from the sponsoring agencies and national figures in the field, including physicians, nurses, psychiatrists, teachers, and administrators.

Workshop hours are from 1 to 4:30 P.M. with four hours of credit for graduate or undergraduate work in health education. Registration will be limited to 80. For full information write to Deward K. Grissom, Department of Health Education, SIU, Carbondale.

This is the sixth year for the school health workshop with a total of 140 attending from various states.

Westinghouse-SIU Radio Series on Network

A series of 20 half-hour musical programs produced by Westinghouse Broadcasting Corporation in cooperation with SIU is being broadcast over the Westinghouse radio network as well as by WSIU.

It is "America Sings," a series of programs dealing with American pop songs in terms of the development of social and political patterns in the U.S. The programs were produced in New York with Buren Robbins, director of the SIU Broadcasting Service, cooperating in script writing and editing.

Eddie Bracken is master of ceremonies. The program carries SIU acknowledgment credits and a 30-second tag end describing Southern's academic program. It can be heard on WSIU on Saturday at 7 P.M.

Sports at Southern

By Fred Huff

After a week's spring tour through North Carolina, Southern's baseball team will open its regular season at home April 6 against Missouri Valley Conference member St. Louis University. Two other MVC members, Tulsa and Cincinnati, also appear on SIU's 1963 slate as Coach Glenn (Abe) Martin's Salukis will be competing for the first time as an independent.

Following their opener against St. Louis, the Salukis will meet St. Joseph's College (here) April 10, Washington University of St. Louis (there) April 13, Central Michigan (here) April 15, Arkansas State (there) April 20, Alumni (here) April 27, Southeast Missouri (there) April 30, Memphis State (here) May 4, Southeast Missouri (here) May 7, Tulsa (here) May 8, Arkansas State (here) May 11, Evansville (there) May 14, Evansville (here) May 22, Cincinnati (there) May 25, Parsons College (here) May 31, and Menard State Prison (there) June 1.

Coach Lew Hartzog's track and field enthusiasts will also return the first weekend in April to the major league relay circuit where they fared so well last season.

First stop of Southern's agenda is the Texas Relays (at Austin), where the Salukis first attracted attention a year ago with a sparkling performance in the two-mile relay event. Both Southern and Kansas were timed in a record-breaking 7:27.7, but the Jayhawkers were awarded first place and the official record on a split decision.

Following the classy Texas meet will be a triangular meet at home with the Chicago University Track Club competing against Southern's varsity and freshman squads. The Salukis will compete in the Kansas Relays April 19-20 and at the Drake Relays April 26-27 before three straight weekends of dual meets. Kansas University will host Hartzog's outfit May 4, but Western Michigan and

Notre Dame are scheduled to invade Carbondale on May 11 and 18, respectively, to provide first-class entertainment for area fans.

Major meets remaining will be the California Relays May 25, the Central Collegiate Conference meet at Notre Dame June 1, the NCAA championship meet at Albuquerque, N.M., June 13-15, and the National AAU meet at St. Louis June 21-22.

Although Hartzog, who has transformed Southern into a nationally recognized track power since arriving here in the fall of 1960, does not anticipate his 1963 squad as being a powerhouse in dual meets this spring, he is optimistic in regard to its potential in the relay meets.

"We should be as good as anyone in the sprint medley," Hartzog predicted, "and our distance medley team will possibly create a bit of a stir, too."

Southern's golf and tennis schedules are still being completed, but both coaches, Lynn Holder and Dick LeFevre, are well pleased with the early results of their efforts.

The Saluki linksmen will be meeting several Big Ten teams as well as competing in a tournament down south while SIU tennis players also are assured of a classy schedule. Fortunately, both groups appear to have the type of personnel available which is necessary to meet such formidable opposition.

Conan N. Smith '50, head track coach at Morton West High School, Berwyn, and Emil (Dutch) Leonard, veteran of more than 20 years with major league baseball clubs, will be the principal speakers at the annual spring coaching clinic on the Carbondale Campus Thursday, April 11.

13 (and losing 67-60), 12 students from The Troops rooming house dribbled a basketball the 55 miles from Carbondale to Cape Girardeau to attend. It took them five hours and 37 minutes.

SIU cagers finished in a tie for seventh place in the final AP small college basketball poll of the season. They finished with a 17-8 record and were invited to the NCAA College Division's Southwest Regional Tournament at Cape Girardeau, Mo., March 8-9.

The Salukis beat Cape Girardeau's Indians 87-79 and then Lamar Tech 93-84 for the title to advance to the national finals at Evansville, Ind., March 13-15. They tripped Evansville 86-73, then lost to South Dakota State 80-76.

SOUTHERN SKETCHES

One of the members of the group to represent the United States at the inauguration of President Juan Bosch of the Dominican Republic in February was J. Albert La Fontaine, director of the SIU Foreign Languages Laboratory. He was invited to attend because of his association as an adviser with President Bosch's political party. . . . David P. Lauerman, Mascoutah, graduate student in government, left March 1 for Wellington, New Zealand, and a year of study in political science at Victoria University as the District 651 Rotary International fellowship winner. . . .

The Atomic Energy Commission's Division of Nuclear Education and Training has granted the Department of Plant Industries $12,000 for equipment and materials to be used primarily for laboratory equipment to teach the use of radioisotopes in agriculture and related sciences.

Service to Southern Awards

Marian Kay Dean, Collinsville, and Gerald Lawless, Jacksonville, are winners of the Service to Southern awards for 1963. Both seniors received engraved gold watches at the annual Theta Xi Variety Show last month. Miss Dean, a mathematics major, has served as a Thompson Point senator and chairman of spring orientation. Mr. Lawless, former Roscoe Pulliam Scholarship holder, is associate editor of the Obelisk and a journalism major. He has served as a New Student Week leader and has made the Deans' Lists every term but one. For the first time in the 16-year history of the variety show, students were chosen as master of ceremonies. Mickey Carroll, Park Ridge, and Fred Fallen, Chicago, shared the honors.

Meredith Willson's lively Broadway and movie hit, "Music Man," will be the production of the Summer Opera Workshop on the Carbondale Campus August 2, 3, and 4, under the direction of Prof. William K. Taylor. . . . A total of 1,079 students on the Carbondale Campus made the Deans' Lists for high academic achievement during the fall quarter—about nine per cent of the total enrollment on the campus. They posted grade averages of 4.25 or better while taking at least 12 hours of class work during the quarter. Of the 1,079 top scholars, 160 had perfect 5.0 averages.

High British Journalist on Campus

One of the most influential men in the British press for a quarter of a century is visiting professor of journalism during the spring term. He is Herbert R. Davies, former director of the Newspaper Society of Great Britain. He joined the Newspaper Society, which includes most of the daily and weekly newspapers in England, in 1929, became general secretary in 1937 and director in 1942. . . .

New York painter Edward Dugmore, abstract expressionist, spent two weeks on campus in February, lecturing graduate and undergraduate art students and giving critiques on their work. His paintings have been exhibited in nine one-man shows since 1949. . . . The cannon in front of Old Main, victim of many a paint job, suffered its most ignoble treatment recently when it was tarred and feathered. . . .

The Carbondale Campus has its own emergency vehicle—a surplus 1950 Cadillac ambulance equipped with a two-way radio. The Security Police force has charge of the vehicle which is on call 24 hours a day for campus use.
